THE NEWS.

—For latest news see Fourth Page.

—Edwin Booth will soon take the boards again.

—The Chicago lake tunnel has now reached a distance of 3,860 feet, and the work of sinking the iron cylinders for the shaft in the great crib will commence this week.

—Mr Wm. Hooper of Cincinnati, has signified his acceptance of the vacant office of Treasurer of the State of Ohio, tendered him by Governor Anderson.

—The officers of the Mexican republic who have arrived in New York, having left El Paso about the beginning of the present month, say that the people of that town were unanimous in an enthusastic reception of President Juarez. General Negrete, with one hundren officers, had gone to the interior to collect and discipline recruits, and expected to be able to raise a large force in a short time.

—We see it announced that a number of capitalist holding coal lands on the James River have applied to the Freedman's Bureau for a "thousand workmen to labor in the mines at wages."

—The Washington Star states that the number of Southerners around that city is enormous. They "spread themselves on the sofas of the East Room, of the White House, with all the license accorded to a Georgia bar-room."

—The meeting of the Guardian Society, for the reform of truant children in the District of Columbia, was attended by Secretary Harlan, Commissioner, Newton, Chief-Justice Carter and other prominent gentlemen. The Hon. Amos Kendall was appointed President. Preliminary measures were adopted for the erection of a suitable house of refuge in the District.

—The Department of State has published in pamphlet form the official correspondence on the subject of the French Universal Exhibition for 1867, for the information of citizens of the United States, containing general regulations, classification of articles, &c. All applications for admission, with a description of the articles to be exhibited, must be presented before the 31st of October next. N. M. Beckwith, Esq, is the United States Commissioner at Paris, to whom letters should be addressed.

—The New Orleans Times says: "We came very near being run over some days ago by the driver of a bread cart. On looking up we recognized in the man who "held the ribbons," a well to do citizen, who lived at his ease in the city, occasionally rusticating on a fine plantation on our lower coast. With true independence he earns his bread by providing it for others. Such is the spirit that will resuscitate the South, and give it a worthy and lasting independence."

—One of the Chicago theatres, known as the Museum, was on last Tuesday evening the scene of a tragedy more genuine than those usually represented on the stage George B Beach, one of the actors, twenty-seven years of age, was shot in the greenroom by his wife, a young and beautiful woman, aged only eighteen. They had been married a little over a year, but seperated soon after the wedding, on disagreements and had lived very little together during all the time of their married life The husband filed a bill for a divorce, and his wife insisted on his withdrawing it. This she could not induce him to do, and therefore determined to take his life. She did not fully succeed in her design, however, as the wound inflicted, though a severe one, was not considered necessarily mortal. She was arrested and committed, but seemed to have no compunction regarding her bloody deed.

Benjamin G. Green, the postmaster of Mystic, Conn, was sentenced to 10 years in the State Prison at Hartford, Wednesday, for stealing between $200 and $800 Jerry Townsend, who stole $100,000, got only seven years Green was tried before a United States Circuit Court, and Townsend before a Connecticut jury, and that is the difference between United States and Connecticut justice.

—Gen. Joe Lane, candidate for Vice President on the ticket with Breckinridge is living on his farm near Portland Oregon in feeble health.

—It is reported that Alex H Stevens will soon be released, when he will go to Georgia to co operate with Ex-Gov. Brown and others in the work of reconstruction.

—The test oath in the new Constitution of Missouri was declared violative of the Constitution of the United States on Friday last, in the Circuit Court of Ray county, in that State, by Judge King, in a decision delivered on a case brought before him involving its validity.

It is reported that the rebel General Kirby Smith has been ordered to report at Washington by the War Department, and that he is now en route from New Orleans for that city

SPEECH OF GRAND REPRESENTATIVE FITZHUGH, OF VIRGINIA, AT THE ODD FELLOW'S CELEBRATION IN BALTIMORE.—Grand Representative Fitzhugh, of Virginia, was then formally presented to the audience, to whom he spoke as follows:

"As my brother from Kentucky has asked, what should old Virginia say? I come before you this day with a proud and a glad heart. I have been kept away from you for four, long, weary, dark years, but to-day I have been permitted to come up face to face with you, and to meet you in this happiest moments from the North, from the South, from the East and from the West, and to find that every man meets us with a welcome and a smile. Sir, we went out—whether we were right or whether we were wrong it is not necessary now to decide—we went out with our whole hearts and we stayed out as long as we could; but such has been the ordering of Providence that we have come back with all our heart and all our strength, and we intend to stay with you forever. [Applause.]

A SPECK OF DANGER.—The minutest black spot on the enamel of a tooth, is an evidence that decay's effacing finger has touched it. Quickly interpose the SOZODONT as a safe guard, or the tooth is gone—and not only that one, but perhaps half-a-dozen.—Be assured that nothing but SOZODONT will either effectually prevent or arrest dental disease.

THE CITY.

THE teachers of Christ Church Sunday School, Raleigh, N. C., have formed a society for the purpose of procuring money to build a Sunday School Room. Persons desiring to have fancy or plain work done can be accommodated by the society. The present place of meeting is at Gov. Manley's house, and the time Saturday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock.

It is also proposed to have a Fair for the benefit of the same object, during the first or second week in December. Contributions in money or materials of any kind—scraps of carpeting, merino or any worsteds, silks or cottons, will be most thankfully received.

The society also calls upon the ladies of other congregations in the State, or elsewhere, who may have opportunities of doing so, to make fancy articles of any description as donations to the fair.

The Sunday School is in a very flourishing condition as regards number of scholars and zeal and number of teachers, but a room is very necessary for the future success of the school. Donations of any kind can be directed to the superintendant of the Sunday school, Wm. E. Anderson, Raleigh, N C.

SIGNS.—Everybody is more or less superstitious, whether they are willing to acknowledge it or not. If this statement be true the following from Puck, a California comic paper, will be of interest to our readers:

To take down the gridiron from the nail where it is hanging with the left hand is a sign that there will be a broil in the kitchen.

To lose a pocket-book containing greenbacks is unlucky.

If you hear a rooster crow when you are in bed, and the clock strikes a few times at the same instant, it is a sign of mo(u)rning.

If you have an itching ear, tickle your nose and you will have an itching there, and ill luck will be averted.

To spill salt accidentally into a stew while it is on the fire, is a proof that the family will meet with alterations, (salt rations)

When a cat prepares to wash its face, it is a sign that one in the house will shortly receive a licking.

To have sixteen warts on the left hand is unlucky; to have the same number on the right hand, is a sign that you are unfortunate.

If a married man, while his wife is in the room, takes up a bottle of spirits with his right hand, it is a sign that she will shortly be out of spirits, and that her husband is going to liquor.

If a one-eyed bull-dog flies at a stock-raiser's legs, it denotes that a misfortune will happen to his calves.

If you get on horseback on Monday, before the sun is up, it is a sign that you will have a hand in a bridal.

To stroke a green-eyed cat with a white spot on her nose is lucky, and heavy purrs will be the consequence.

If a red-haired man falls in love with a girl who dislikes hair of that color, he will very likely dye before he is married.

The above signs and portents may be strictly relied upon; they have never been known to fail.

TAKING THE OATH.—On visiting the provost marshal's office, yesterday, we found a number of persons present taking the amnesty oath It reminds us of the fact that Gov Holden had decided to leave the books open until the period for legislative and congressional elections. It seems to us that our people generally stand in their own light and interest in hesitating about this matter. The oath is a necessity and precedent to the restoration of certain rights. But the leading fact is that a time may come when the privilege of subscribing it will be withdrawn. Let our people then, go forward at once and avow their allegiance without further parley.

We invite attention to the advertisement of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, giving an exhibit of the present condition of the Corporation, to be found in this paper. It will be seen that it is the determination of the Directors to meet all liabilities as fast as it shall be found possible in the present distracted condition of business matters to do so, and the company will continue to do business as heretofore. The charter of the officers of the company will be sufficient guarantee that the business will be conducted with a due regard to the interests of all concerned. Dr. Chas. E Johnson is President, and R. H. Battle, Esq., Secretary.

NEWBERN.—Passengers from Newbern last night report that a large number of Northerners have arrived there, some of them discharged soldiers and officers, with the intention of locating permanently at that and other points in this State. A large amount of goods has also arrived, probably more than will be sold for a year to come. Trade is represented as brisk as usual at this season of the year.

For meal, bacon, flour and other things in the provision line, we cannot recommend a better place than the house of P. B. Williamson & Co., Fayetteville street. These gentlemen keep a heavy stock of groceries and provisions and sell for small profits.

We call the attention of the North Carolina public to our list of Petersburg advertisements, all of them representing good houses and clever men; especially do we invite attention to the card of Donnans & Johnston, which appears for the first time this morning. They do a grocery and commission business both in Petersburg and Richmond; they are gentlemen of integrity and may be relied on.

Our friends from the country, who come to town to make purchases, will find a fine stock of dry goods, clothing, boots, shoes, hats, watches, &c., at Mrs. Kramer's, on Wilmington street. Read her advertisement, and then examine the stock for yourselves.

YESTERDAY was a cool autumnal day, and undoubtedly the fore-runner of many of the same kind. Let 'em come.

SANITARY.—The title freedmen are still at work, under the supervision of Capt. Purington, the active Provost Marshal, cleaning the streets. The military and civil authorities of the city are now running together in a remarkably amicable manner.

We have a note from Messrs. Fulton & Price stating that the Wilmington Journal will be resumed on the 28th of September. We wish them success.

BOWEN & RANDALL'S new stock of goods arrived last night and will be ready for inspection this evening. Remember the place:—S. R. Pentress' old stand, on Fayetteville street.

WHO WANTS A BOARDER?—Attention is called to the advertisement of a young man in search of a boarding house. We think any family would find a pleasant companion in the advertiser.

MAJOR HOUGH and Mr. Lehman, of Newbern, were among the arrivals at the Exchange yesterday.

TO-MORROW the convention of the colored people of this State meets in this city. Agitators, attention! Be on hand.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT OF THE CONdition of the N C. Mutual Life Insurance Company will show that after all the vicissitudes of the war, the Company is still strong, and merits the continuance of the patronage heretofore so generously bestowed:

ASSETS.

Premium Notes liable to assessment,	$129.198
Bonds of solvent individuals.....	23,004
		$152,202

LIABILITIES.

Losses allowed up to January 1, 1865.....	$35 249
Excess of assets over liabilities	$116.953

To meet the above liabilities, the Directors have ordered the collection of the individual bonds, and an assessment of 20 per cent. on the premium notes, which should yield

Bonds.....	$23 004
Assessments	25,839
		$48 843
Losses.....		35,249
An excess of.....		$13,694

Sufficient to cover all deficiencies.

If the Company shall be patronized by the public as before the war, there will be the annual profits in cash and premium notes which may be added to the assets now in hand, for the payment of liabilities.

Nearly all the above liabilities would have been extinguished but for the refusal of claimants to receive the currency in circulation at the time of the losses They cannot reasonably complain of some delay. It will be remembered that the premium notes are the accumulations of notes given by insurers for one-half their annual premiums, which the Company had the right to require to be paid in cash. On the face of the note the insurer promises to pay whenever requested by the Directors, and all payments on assessments will be so much added to the sum insured, by diminishing to that amount the premium note to be deducted in case of loss. Many insurers pay the whole premium incash as a matter of choice. It is believed that the losses may be paid by the first instalment of ten per cent added to the contemplated profits; but it is the firm intention of the directors to meet all their liabilities as promptly as the condition of the country will admit, even if to do so, it may be necessary to order the collection of all the premium notes.

—A story is told of a man who insured in London one thousand cigars, valued at £300, against fire and water. After the lapse of six months he made his appearance at the insurance office and demanded his money, as the cigars had all been burned. "But not on the vessel, sir," said the secretary, "for she is in dock now." "Yes, on board vessel: I smoked them, and therefore burned them all myself, and the insurance says against fire."—The secretary seemed taken aback, but told the smoker to call again next day. He called at the appointed time, but was met by the solicitor of the company, who told him if he did not relinquish his claim he would be prosecuted as one who knowingly and wilfully set fire to goods insured by the company.

MR. EDITOR:—THE FOLLOWING IS STRANGE BUT TRUE.

'Twas late last night that I was sitting, in my chamber, lonely, knitting,
Knitting on the same old stocking, I'd commenced before the war;
Knitting carefully, I was feeling—when methought I heard one stealing,
Stealing softly up the stairway, leading to my chamber door.

This I thought, and listened more.

Soon I heard a gentle knocking—hastily I dropped my stocking;
Dropped my knitting—the old stocking I commenced before the war.
Again, and louder, came the rapping—as tho' they thought that I was napping;
Me a napping? Knitting, napping? Me who never—"Ope the door."

This the voice said—"Ope the door!"

"'Tis Sally's voice"—says I—"'tis Sally, and I know she's got some news,
And I'm powerful glad she's come too, for I most did have the blues.
"Sally," says I, "Sally, howdye?" "What's the news? Do have a chair?"
"Glorious news, my Peggy darling—glorious news from Mark't Square."

"From Shepherd's Store in Market Square."

At Shepherd's Store, they've got new shoes—such bran new, laced up, tasseled beauties.
Morocco, kid, and patent leather—Congress gaiters, toe-tipped bootees.
Balmoral, Prunello and Creole. Mens and womens, boys and girls;
Such a sight it is to behold—they're the cheapest in the world.

The very cheapest in the world.

And Peggy, dear, they've got new hats—military and civilian.
All the style of Frenchy fashion—a la Emp'reur Maximilian.
And I told my husband, Johnny, "throw aside that rusty beaver"
"Go to Shepherd's—market square—get a hat you gay deceiver,

Get a hat, and burn your beaver."

Well, Peg—John went to market square—he's just got back—rigged up so gay,
A bran new suit from top to toe—and cheap as dirt, for ready pay:
And I advise you, Peggy darling—to give what cash you've got to spare,
To your dear Bobby in the morning—and send him straight to Market Square"

To Shepherd's Store, in Market Square.

"I'll do it, Sally dear"—says I—I'll send Bob early in the morn,
I'll send him straight to Shepherd's Store—I will as sure as I am born,
Good bye, dear Sally! Must you go? Yes—good bye Peggy—now take care,
Be sure that Bob finds the right place—'tis SHEPHERD'S STORE, at Market Square

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 28, 1865.

The refusal of the loyal people of North Carolina, who are now asking to be allowed to return to the Union, to pay debts contracted for the prosecution of the war upon the Union, or to redeem script or bonds issued for the purpose of assisting to destroy the government, is not repudiation. Why abandon the rebellion itself, why abandon the so-called Confederacy and its head, Jeff. Davis, if we are to be taxed to make good the pledges and bonds issued under the rebel reign? Why redeem the County and State bonds in the hands of one man and refuse to redeem the Confederate bonds in the hands of another? All were issued alike to prosecute the war, and all of them should sink into oblivion together.

The people of North Carolina will be taxed to pay their portion of the national debt; they must be taxed besides to defray the expenses of a loyal State government; and add to this additional taxes that may be required to redeem the State and County bonds, mostly in the hands of speculators who have lost nothing or but little by the war, and half the population will be broken up. The Wake county debt, contracted for war purposes, is from seven to nine hundred thousand dollars, and the speculators who hold these bonds, bought for a song in Confederate currency, would impoverish the whole of us to redeem them The soldier has lost his wages, the farmers have lost their stock, provisions and fences—all of us have lost more or less—and we insist that the speculator shall lose his State and County bonds. And we would have this matter finally settled by the Convention. Do not leave it to future legislation, but, dispose of it now and forever. It will never do to tax the labor of the soldier, who has lost his time, health and even his pitiful wages, to pay the pittance doled out to his family while he was away. To force him to do this would be an outrage almost as great as the one that forced him to fight in a war that he had no hand in making. The holders of these bonds, and a few of their friends want them paid, but the masses protest against it; and we warn the people's representatives to beware how they act in the matter, for the masses will never consent to the payment of any part of the rebel debt. They repudiate the heresy of secession, they repudiate Jeff. Davis and his partizans, and they will not be taxed to redeem rebel script in the hands of pampered Shylocks who have grown rich on the sufferings of the country.

Let the Convention act and act promptly, and let it forever free the people from all obligation to pay Confederate, State or County bonds issued for the purpose of prosecuting the war.

Hard on ye Ancient Democracy.

The following, from a western paper, is pretty hard on ye ancient democracy. We think it should be made to apply, however, only to the latter day saints, or the Breckinridge party of 1860, which was organized for the avowed purpose of breaking up the Union. The national democracy that supported Douglas in 1860 have none of the blood of the late war on their skirts, but the Breckinridge faction will wear the stain upon their garments for many a day.

We give the following catechism from a western paper, for the benefit of the saints hereabouts:

What party seceded from the Union, waged a relentless war of four years, and is responsible for all the blood that has been shed, and all the debt created in the suppression of the rebellion?

The Democratic party.

What party produced ALL the traitors in the United States?

The Democratic party.

What party fought against the Union in the South and gave the rebels "aid and comfort" in the North?

The Democratic party.

What party opposed the war, resisted the draft and denounced Mr. Lincoln as a tyrant and usurper worthy of death?

The Democratic party.

What party taught that "resistance to tyrants was obedience to God," thus teaching the people the crime of assassination?

The Democratic party.

What party, in their local processions, sung songs threatening to "hang Abe Lincoln on a sour apple tree?"

The Democratic party.

What party produced Booth, Harold, Atzerot and Payne?

The Democratic party.

What party in advocating the doctrine of the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions has been preaching rebellion ever since the Nullification days of John C Calhoun?

The Democratic party.

What party has given birth to all the advocates of State Rights, Nullification, Conspiracy and Civil War?

The Democratic party.

What party also originated such organizations as the Sons of Liberty and the Knights of the Golden Circle?

The Democratic party.

What party advocated an armistice and compromise with rebels in arms?

The Democratic party.

What party, during the late war, never rejoiced over the victories of the Union army, seldom put out flags, and evinced by their demeanor, their deep chagrin that the rebels had been defeated?

The Democratic party.

What party secretly armed itself, last year, for the purpose of slaying their Union neighbors?

The Democratic party.

What party threatened, in Ohio, if Vallandigham was re-arrested, that 180,000 Democrats, under Pugh, would rise in rebellion, rescue him, and drive the tyrant Lincoln from his throne?

The Democratic party.

What party contended with the Cincinnatti Enquirer that the United States was not a nation but a league of thirty-four separate sovereignties, thus justifying the action of the South in withdrawing from the Union?

The Democratic party.

What party talks the loudest against negro equality and practices it most?

The Democratic party.

What party, in less than two years, if the radicals carry their point, will be begging negroes for their votes?

The Democratic party.

Ought such a power to be entrusted with political power again?

Direct Trade.

The business men of Norfolk are agitating the question of direct trade with Europe. We heard much of this thing, before the war, which all ended in smoke, but we hope for better luck this time. The Day Book says:

"The skies are bright and brightening!" Such was the watchword of the great editor, Thos. Ritchie, when rallying the Democracy of old Virginia to victory, and such is the greeting we would offer our citizens as each new enterprise falls into rank, to swell the march of improvement now hurrying our city on to her destined greatness. We record with pleasure the fact of a meeting of some of our leading citizens, held in this city yesterday to start a line of steamers between this city and St Nagaire (France.)

It was a meeting of the Commissioners for the purpose of starting a line of steamers between St Nagaire (France) and Norfolk. The meeting was held at the office of W. W. Wing, Esq., Postmaster of this city. The members of the commission present were Messrs. Myer Myers, Chairman; Charles Reid, Secretary, and Mr. Charles Shield. The Vice-Consul of France, Mr. Leon Schisano, and Alexander Bell, Esq., were also present, and W. W. Wing, Esq., on the part of the State of Virginia.

Resolutions were passed to the effect of carrying through the grand enterprise. Some eight hundred thousand dollars are already subscribed—the sum of three million dollars being needed to carry out the views of the projectors. The fact that his Imperial Majesty Napoleon III, takes an active interest in the establishment of this line, and the positive assurance of aid from that source, fixes with certainty the establishment of the line at an early day. His Excellency, Marquis de Montholon, Minister of France at Washington, Messrs. Alfred Paul, Consul of France at Richmond; A. Sauran, Vice Consul of France at Baltimore, and Leon Schisano, Vice Consul of France at Norfolk, have not only expressed themselves highly gratified at the undertaking, but have kindly offered their support, as far as it lay in their power, to promote the grand enterprise. Let the citizens of Norfolk and the State now move this matter forward, and strike whilst the iron is hot.

ELOPEMENT.—By one of the trains from North Carolina, on yesterday, arrived a happy couple, who had just consummated a marriage "on the sly."

The bridegroom, a gallant soldier, minus an arm, had long been engaged to the lady, but losing his fortune in the war, lost, at the same time, the favor of the lady's father.

He went North shortly after the surrender, at the solicitation of a rich uncle in Philadelphia, and getting in business, with a good prospect of doing well, he returned during last week to claim his Ladye Love.

The cruel parent still objected; no argument could move his stony will, so that nothing remained for our veteran but to marry her without consent.

Sympathizing friends were found (there are always people anxious to give such affairs a helping hand,) to aid them, and on Saturday a raid was made upon the old man's farm, under cover of the night, and the damsel successfully brought off.

A merry party and wedding, at a friend's house that night, a journey by relays, afterwards brought the happy pair to our city last night. They stopped with a friend, and will go this morning.

We hope that their stolen march will result most joyfully, and that long lives being theirs, they may never regret the step, nor look less loving and interesting than when we saw them.—Petersburg Index.

Mr. JAMES H. MOORE is announced as the Local Editor of the Standard. Mr. MOORE is a gentleman of ability and experience and we congratulate our neighbors on the accession.—By the way, Mr. MOORE is a candidate for chief clerk of the State Convention and we know of no man better capable of discharging the duties of that position. We wish him success both as editor and clerk to the Convention.

WE were pleased to see Mr. WM A. SMITH, member elect to the State Convention from Johnston county, in the city on Tuesday. Mr. SMITH and SIMON GORDON, Esq., both excellent Union men, are the delegates from Johnston, and no county will have a truer or more efficient representation.

President Johnson and Negro Suffrage.

At present the attitude of President Johnson on the subject of negro suffrage is somewhat doubtful. It is claimed by a certain writer in an address to the colored men of the District of Columbia, that he is personally friendly to the project, but his State's rights opinions will not allow him to interfere directly in its behalf. In the light that we now have, it is probably fair to infer that he does not wish to assume any responsibility in the premises, but will leave the whole matter to Congress. A statement contained in a letter from Secretary Harlan, of the Interior Department, gives us a little information as to the President's views, and we consequently copy it below:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D C., Aug. 26, 1865.

To the Hon. George B. Edmonds, Clement, Iowa:

DEAR SIR:—I have just received your letter of the 21st instant, stating, among other things, that the Union State Convention of Iowa has adopted as a plank in its platform a recommendation in favor of negro suffrage, that the Copperhead Convention has endorsed President Johnson's policy for the reorganization of States, assuming it to be in opposition to negro suffrage; that this is, in your opinion, the issue joined between the two parties in Iowa; that heretofore the Union party has derived valuable aid from me in support of its principles; that you regret, however, to observe a newspaper report of a speech recently made by me, which places me, as you think, in antagonism with its present principles and policy, which grieves you pain.

"In reply I have to say, that if your opinion was well founded it would be a cause of greater pain to me than yourself; but I beg respectfully to state that you misapprehend the position of President Johnson and my own, as well as that of the Union party at large. The real question at issue, in a national point of view, is not whether negroes shall be permitted to vote, but whether they shall derive that authority from the National Government or from the State Governments respectively.

"President Johnson maintains the doctrine that the Constitution of the United States does not confer on the Federal Government the right to interfere primarily with the question of suffrage in any State of the Union; that the question may arise and properly be decided by Congress, when Senators and members present themselves for admission to seats in that body, under the clause of the Constitution which makes each House exclusive judge of the qualifications and elections of members; and that other clause of the Constitution of the United States which provides that 'the United States shall guaranty to every State in the Union a republican form of Government.' I infer that if any State should adopt a law on the subject of suffrage, which would clearly show the State Government to be other than republican, it would be the duty of Congress to reject applicants for seats, and to adopt whatever legislative remedies would in their judgment be necessary to carry out the guaranties of the Constitution.

"That the State of Iowa may take steps to extend the right of suffrage is not, as it seems to me, in conflict with this policy, and consequently those who support the policy of the President on this subject are not in antagonism with the platform of the Union party of Iowa.

"The Union party of that State propose that the State shall modify its own Constitution, so as to include as electors persons who have not, under its present provisions, the right to vote. This, as President Johnson maintains, a State may do, but that the National Government would have no right to require Iowa, or any other State, to modify its own Constitution on this or any other subject, when not in conflict with the Constitution of the United States.

"If I should be in Iowa when that question is submitted to the people, if it shall be so submitted by the Legislature, I would vote to extend the right to all classes of persons possessing the requisite intelligence and patriotism to be entrusted with a participation in the management of public affairs, State or National, without regard to their nationality, as I do not believe that the liberty of any class of people can be considered safe who are to be permanently deprived of the exercise of this right.

"I do not disguise these opinions; you may therefore make what use of this letter you deem proper.

"I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JAMES HARLAN."

GRAND COUNCIL OF RED MEN.—The Convention of delegates of Red Men, from the various States of the Union, assembled in the city of Baltimore last week, and held a most interesting meeting. Accounts from the Subordinate Councils represent the Order in a most prosperous condition throughout the entire jurisdiction of the Grand Council.

Representatives were present from all the Northern States and from Louisiana, Kentucky, Missouri and Virginia. The Councils of other Southern States will re-organize at an early day.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

G Incohence—Thomas A Bosley, of Ohio; G Sen. Sagamore—A. Shaw, of Louisiana; G Jun. Sagamore—Dr J D Moore, of New Jersey; Great Prophet—W R McFarland, of Delaware; G C of Records—J L Booker, of Maryland; G K of Wampum—Wm G Gorsuch, of Maryland. These were installed into office by P G Incohence, Huge Latham, of Virginia.

The following delegates were present from Virginia: H Latham, P G I Alexander; E L Lunsford, P G S, Petersburg, J B Shanar, P S, Lynchburg; Dr C R Bricken, P S Richmond

After the adjournment of the Grand Council, a magnificent supper was partaken of by the delegates, at Sherwood's Hotel.

The order of Red Men is in a most flourishing condition in this city, and is receiving accessions to its membership at each succeeding meeting.

SPEAKING EVIL.—Some irreverent, away out in California, gets off the following on a member of the "sacred calling" out in the diggins:

"Preachin was is natural gait, but he wern't a man to lay back and twiddle his thumbs because there did'nt happen to be nothing doin in his own special line—no sir; he was a man would meander forth and stir up something for himself. His last acts was to go his pile on "king and" (calkalating to fill, but which he didn't fill) when there was a "flush" out agin him, and naterally, you see, he went under. And so he was cleaned out, as you may say, and he struck the home trail cheerfully, but first broke:

If he was preaching on his beat,
He'd train from East to West,
And North to South—in cold and heat—
He does his level best.

He'd cuss and sing and howl and pray,
And dance and drink and jest,
And lie and steal—all one to him—
He done his level best.

GRAND JURY OF [illegible] ON JEFF. DAVIS.—The Cincinnati Gazette, of September 14, says:

We are able to state [illegible] authority, that the reports [illegible] Eastern press to give to the speedy trial of Jefferson Davis, and Chief Justice Chase [illegible] it, are unfounded. The Chief Justice has very properly declined all conference on the subject, and it is not at all likely that he will hold any court in Virginia and North Carolina until after Congress shall have had an opportunity of legislating in regard to the circuits in the Rebel States; and in this dignified position we think the country will sustain him.

Lady Duff Gord on in Egypt—New Pictures of Egyptian Life.

Lady Duff Gordon has just published in London, "Letters from Egypt," written from 1862 to 1865, in which new pictures of life in that country are given. The Examiner says of this volume: "Lady Duff Gordon gives a kindly account of the people with whom she has lived in close intimacy and hearty friendship during three winters and more. She may write enthusiastically, now and then unreasonably; sober Englishmen may shake their heads at her favorable mention or generous excuse of ways of thought and life grievously opposed to the orthodox rule of European society; but everything she writes is worth reading and thinking over. Rarely have we met so charming a travel book, so simple and honest a photograph of the life of a strange people, so unaffected and eloquent a plea for christian sympathy towards wretched and degraded race.

The author writes:

"My conclusion is the heretical one, that to dream of converting here is absurd, and, I will add, wrong. All that is wanted is more general knowledge and education, and the religion will clear and develop itself; the elements are identified with those of Christianity, encumbered as that has been, with all criticism and intolerance. The creed is simpler, and there are no priests. I think that the faith has remained wonderfully rational, considering the ignorance of those who held it. I will add my maid's practical remark: 'The prayers are a fine thing for a lazy people; they mus. first wash, and the prayer is a capital drill.'

But Moslemism does not always keep men clean.

AN OLD AND DIRTY SAINT.

"Some way above Belyonch, Omar asked eagerly for leave to stop the boat, as a great Sheik had called us, and we should inevitably have some disaster if we disobeyed. So we stopped, and Omar said, 'Come and see the Sheik ma'am.' I walked off, and presently found about thirty people, including all my own men, sitting on the ground round St Simeon stylites, without the column. A hideous old man, like Polyphemus, utterly naked, with the skin of a rhinoceros all cracked with the weather sat there, and had sat night and day, summer and winter, motionless, for twenty years. He never prays, he never washes, he does not keep Ramadan, and yet he is a saint. Of course I expected a good hearty curse from such a man; but he was delighted with my visit; asked me to sit down; ordered his servant to bring some sugar cane; asked my name, and tried to repeat it over again; he was quite talkative, and full of kindness and compliments, and took no notice of any one else. Omar and my crew smiled and nodded, and all congratulated me heartily.

Such a distinction proves my own excellence (as the Sheik knows all people's thoughts) and is sure to be followed by good fortune. Finally Omar proposed to say the Fat'hah, in which all joined except the Sheik, who looked rather bored by the interruption, and who desired us not to go so soon, unless I was in a hurry. A party of Bedouins came up on camels, with presents for the holy man, but he took no notice of them, and went on questioning Omar about me, and answering my questions. What struck me was the total absence of any sanctimonious air about the fellow; he was quite worldly and jocose. I suppose he knew that his position was secure, and thought his dirt and nakedness were sufficient proofs of his holiness. Omar then recited the Fat'hah again, and we rose and gave the servant a few tadabs. The Sheik takes no notice of this part of the proceedings, and he asked me to send him twice my handful of rice for his dinner—an honor so great that there was a murmur of congratulations through the whole assembly."

ARAB WOMEN.

Omar came running after, and wondered I was not afraid. I laughed, and said they were much too ugly and kind looking to frighten any one, which pleased them exceedingly. They all wanted me to come and eat in their houses and I had a great mind to go, but the wind was fair and the boat waiting, so I bade my beautiful friends farewell. They all said if we wanted anything—milk or eggs—for they would give it with pleasure. It was not their custom in all things, they said. I offered a bit of money to a little naked child, but his mother would not let him take it. I shall never forget the sweet engaging creature at that little village, or the dignified politeness of the old weaver whose loom I walked into to look at, and who also wished to get a piece of bread before me.

It is the true political, pastoral life of the Bible. The villages where the English have not been, and simply they don't land at—the little places."

Tragedy in Richmond—Man shot by a Woman.

A Richmond paper of last Saturday has the following:

About 12 o'clock on Friday night, R. H. Meade, of Manchester, was shot by Mrs Ould, proprietress of a bar room and restaurant on Franklin street, between 13th and 14th. The affair occurred on Franklin street, nearly opposite the Eureka Saloon.

The pair were first heard in altercation—the woman saying, pleadingly, 'don't leave me;' 'don't leave me.' Mead started down street, followed by the woman, who, finding that he would not stop, drew a pistol and shot him, the ball entering the back to the left of the spinal column, and passing forward, remained in the body. It is said Mead a few moments before threw bricks at her to drive her away and then attempted to leave.

Almost immediately after the shooting occurred the woman was taken into custody by a policeman. She begged to be allowed to see Meade and be taken to where he was. Her face was badly swollen, as if from a severe blow. As soon as she saw the man, she said "Bob, Bob, how are you? Oh, will you forgive me? I begged you to save you from ruin and you would not. "Well," he said, "you say I've ruined you and now you've come to destroy me; you have all my money." "No," said she, "I don't want your money," and then drew from her pocket a roll of bills and a watch and chain and gave them to him.

When told by bystanders that she had better take some of it, he replied no, that she would be dead before he would. Mead said he would forgive her, and there was a general weeping and crying.

She was taken before Col. McIntosh who refused bail and consigned her to Castle Thunder to await further examination. The wound of Mead, which is said to be a very dangerous one, was dressed by Dr. White.

It appears that Mead had been living on terms of intimacy with Mrs Ould for about three years, and it states that he swore upon the bible that he would make her his wife. On the night in question live with her no longer, and, according to his statement, supposed they were separating good-friends, when he was unexpectedly shot.

[illegible] date says:

By one of the trains from North Carolina, on yesterday, arrived a happy couple, who had just consummated a marriage "on the sly."

The bridegroom, a gallant soldier, minus an arm, had long been engaged to the lady, but losing his fortune in the war, lost, at the same time, the favor of the lady's father.

He went North after the surrender, at the solicitation of a rich uncle in Philadelphia, and getting in business, with the prospect of doing well, he returned during last week to claim his Lady Love.

The cruel parent still objected; no argument could move his stony will, so that nothing remained for our vet ran, but to marry her without consent.

Sympathizing friends were found (there are always people anxious to give such affairs a helping hand) to aid them and on Saturday a raid was made upon the old man's farm, under cover of the night, and the damsel successfully brought off.

A merry party and dancing at a friend's house that night, a journey by relays, afterwards brought the happy pair to our city last night. They stopped with a friend, and will go on this morning.

We hope that stolen march will result most joyfully, and that long lives being theirs, they may never regret the step, nor look less loving and interesting, than as we saw them.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.
The Great Invention of the Age in HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Steel Springs, in each of which the finest and most flexible, elastic and durable spring ever used. They seldom break, like the single springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any single spring Skirt that ever was or can be made.

The great flexibility and great comfort and pleasure any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will experience particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Theatres, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never after be willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Springs are covered with a double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering usually used on Steel Hoop Skirts. The best cotton tape on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off as rods when dragging down stairs, stairways, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tape, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEST'S, BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. J. West & Co.,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole Manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Street, New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana & Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

GEN. VANCE.—It is said that some few weeks since, several U. S. officers called on Gen. Vance at his farm near Asheville, when his wife excused him stating that he had gone to mill. He had been ploughing and doing other farm work ever since the surrender. What an example to the young men of the South.

The late election in Davie county is said to have been the most quiet and orderly ever held there.

RECAPTURED.—Alfred Lock, (colored,) who was convicted of committing a rape on the person of a white lady of Rowan county, and sentenced to be hanged, and who made his escape from the Salisbury jail sometime in July last, was recaptured on last Saturday by J. D. Johnson, Esq., and carried to Salisbury to await the penalty of his crime.

ROW BETWEEN THE BLACKS AND WHITES—ELECTION DAY AT CONCORD.—The Salisbury Banner has the following relative to the disturbance at Concord, Cabarrus county, on election day:

We learn from a gentleman, resident of Concord, some further particulars of the late riot at that place between the negroes and the citizens.—It seems, as is generally the case on election days, the whole affair was brought about by certain whites and blacks indulging too freely in spiritous liquor. Many negroes were undoubtedly under the influence of liquor and very insulting—using such words as these: We came here to vote—we will be d—d if we don't vote. We are free; the bottom rail will soon be on top, &c. The whites were neither entirely sober nor faultless. The riot, however, was not anticipated or preplaned.—No one expected it. It was just such an one as not unfrequently occurs at a corn shucking, a log rolling, or on election days at any little village or precinct where whisk-y is indulged too freely.

The row originated by the discharge of a pistol in the hands of a discharged Union soldier, who having married in this state now resides near Concord. This soldier, in company with a citizen, both intoxicated, were observed, sometime before the disturbance, to be very noisy—the soldier carrying a pistol in his hand, in a menacing manner.—They got into some difficulty with the negroes.—In the meantime the pistol being discharged a crowd gathered and the riot began and ended with several persons of opposite color getting bruised heads and the whites running the negroes out of town This is an unfortunate, as well as a very unusual affair, for the orderly, quiet, and law abiding citizens of Cabarrus: and we know that none regret it more than they.

—The Rebel ex General Gordon of Georgia, was at the Executive Mansion on Thursday, seeking pardon.

HORRIBLE MURDER.—The following from Granville county is appalling:

"A fearful tragedy was enacted some days since near Buchanan, in this county. Mrs. Fannie Harris, wife of Human Harris, was cruelly murdered by a negro woman, who formerly belonged to the family and still resided with them. Mrs. Harris was found dead in her yard, her head having been crushed with a rock so as to beat out her brains.

The woman was arrested on suspicion, confessed the deed, and the neighbors executed summary punishment upon her by hanging her to a tree. No cause was assigned for the act.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases, arising from an impure state of the blood and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Ulceration of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetter, Erysipelas, and all scaly eruptions of the skin,

AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

Not a few of the worst disorders that affect mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, invigorates the vital forces of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body and expells the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy that could be relied on has long been sought for, and now for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

THESE EXTRACTS HAVE BEEN ADMITTED TO USE IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY, and are also in very general use in all the State HOSPITALS and PUBLIC SANITARY INSTITUTES throughout the land, as well as in private practices, and are considered as invaluable remedies.
